

ENVIRONMENTAL STATEMENT

MAE is committed to reducing the impact on the environment by always using energy efficient products.

It is our belief that, starting with design, we can control the levels of energy by reducing the amount consumed.

We can control how we use products by automated control, where possible, recycle product packaging and order product quantities correctly.

By producing less waste and less delivery requirements, we can contribute to the reduction of CO2 emissions produced during the construction phase of the project.

*Managing Director
MAE*

February 2011